Dear Sir,

Our friend Mr George Thompson called on me yesterday. I had written in Paris, written to him for your address, hoping to obtain it to call upon you before I left. It seems that Mr Thompson temporarily mislaid your letter, so I was disappointed. I wrote to you early in April last, enclosing a Circular relating to the coming Anti-Slavery Conference in Paris, & expressing the satisfaction

I experienced at the prospect of making your personal acquaintance.
I learn from Mr Thompson that you had not received any communication from me up to the date of your departure from the other side. I much regret this. My letter was directed to you, Boston, Mass.
It may have been sent after you if you were travelling. I hasten to subscribe the omission by these few lines, most cordially welcoming you to our shores, & reserving much I would say, until I have the pleasure of meeting you, which I hope will be soon. I understand you are to leave Paris for London this day week. I had hoped to be again in Paris before you left it, but my journey is deferred for a few days longer, so that I may not be to see you first in London.

I enclose a Circular relating to our Conference. You will see by that you have been appointed to take part in its proceedings. We hope for a great gathering & that it will hasten the day for the universal abolition of that wicked system which you have so nobly, so successfully combated in your own country, & for which you have suffered so much.

Believe me

Dear Sir

With consideration of high respect & esteem

Yours faithfully

L. A. Chamerovzow
